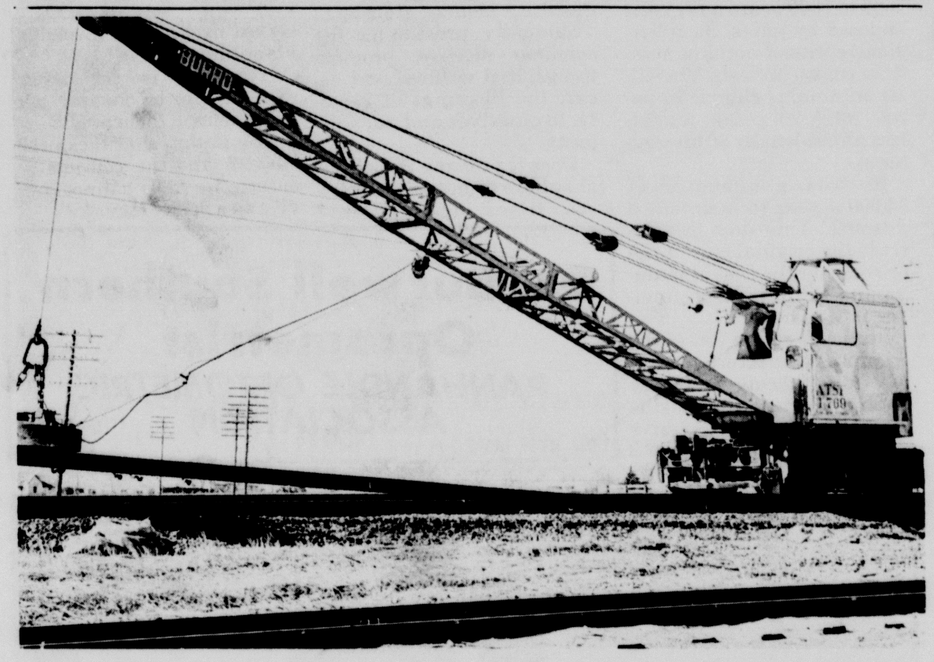
Commissioners Ponder Disaster Declaration



This huge crane armed with a giant magnet lifts quarter-mile rails in place on the Santa Fe here. The railroad is installing continuous rail from a point just north of Canyon to Hereford.

Brazzil Says 1970 History's Driest

BY TROY MARTIN

Whether Randall County should join neighboring counties in asking to be declared a drouth disaster area was debated Monday by commissioners court.

County Judge Woody Pond said he put the item on the Randall County agenda after a telephone call from the judge in Carson County.

Randall County Agent John Brazzil Monday told the court that declaring the county a disaster area might help farmers in obtaining government loans with low interest rates and permits to graze soil bank pastures.

He was asked by the court to prepare data on the drouth situation and make the information available to commissioners.

Brazzil said he would do so in cooperation with the Soil Conservation Service and the Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation Service.

Brazzil explained that the Farm Home Administration, a federal agency, sometimes makes loans at cheap interest rates in time of stress. He also noted that in time of stress farmers sometimes are allowed to graze soil bank acreage for a few when feed is short.

Brazzil said Randall County's rainfall last year was less than the 9.52 inches reported by the Amarillo Air Terminal Weather Bureau and that some parts of the county had five inches or less.

He said it was the driest year since weather records have been kept.

Brazzil pointed out that because of drouth dryland wheat pasture has not developed. He noted that the 25,000 acres of irrigated wheat is even below par.

Canyon has had .94 inches of moisture since the first of the year in two snow storms but even then most wheat fields got little or no benefit since the snow was blown off them by high wind.

The court accepted parts of two bids on tools for the county road department. Tools from Sanders Auto Supply and First Supply will be purchased if the two firms permit a portion of their bid items to be purchased and others rejected.

First Supply had the over-

North Vietnam Returns WTSU Pro-Nixon Mail

Some 900 letters returned Monday to the West Texas State University campus from the North Vietnamese embassy in Paris, France.

Those letters, all supporting President Richard Nixon's position in Northeast Asia, were mailed in January after a week of letter writing and signing directed by the Scabbard and Blade honorary military fraternity.

"Refused" was stamped on the package of unopened mail.

The military group had manned tables in the Student Activities Center and the Student Union Building during the week-long campaign to collect the letters.

Decision on what to do with the letters has not been made, and meanwhile, the letters are housed at the ROTC building.

John Henry's Nightmare

Machines Lay Rail

BY TROY MARTIN

If John Henry thought the steam hammer was a threat to the steel driving man he would really be chagrined by the machinery with which Santa Fe rail is being laid through Canyon this week.

The Santa Fe is laying new rail from Haney Switch just north of Canyon 39 miles to Hereford.

Old rail is being removed and quarter-mile lengths laid in its place. After the rail is in place it is being welded by the French Boutet process so that when the job is completed the Santa Fe will have 39 miles of continuous rail from Haney to Hereford.

Some 80 Navajo Indians from a reservation in New Mexico make up the rail relay gang and have been living in special cars on the Santa Fe siding here.

A switch gang of 19 men are putting in turnouts and switches where they are needed. A welding gang is made up of eight men and a pick-up gang of 10 rounds out the Santa Fe crew working here.

W. G. Bailey, district engineer for the Santa Fe, says the group is laying about 1½ miles of track a day.

"We laid a half mile of track in the old days with three times as many men," Bailey declared.

The district engineer explained the modern track-laying miracle.

First a tie saw cuts the old ties into three pieces, he said. This ruins the ties for fence posts as they were once used but it is much more efficient and less expensive for the railroad.

An iron hand on the tie saw picks up the center piece and throws it aside while two pushers push the two ends from under the rails. This machine handles five ties a minute.

Bailey said people can pick up the pieces along the right of way and use them for firewood. He warned that if the wood has too much cresote on it it might smoke up the house.

A bolt machine takes out the bolts and removes the joints of the old rail. The spikes and old rail are removed from the track bed with a huge crane equipped with a powerful magnet.

To prove that man is still important, plug setters set ⅝-inch wooden tie plugs in the holes from which spikes have been moved.

"Tie plugs fill the old spike hole, preserve the tie and give holding power for the new spike," Bailey explain-

Don Jackson Heads Agriculture Group

Donald E. Jackson, Amarillo insurance executive, is the new president of the board of the Agricultural Development Association for West Texas State University.

The board at its annual meeting recently also voted to increase the number of directors from 12 to 31 "so that its directors would be located throughout the area which the university serves," Jackson said.

Jerry Gage of Vega was named vice president; Johnny Tinnin of Amarillo, secretary; and Boyd Vaughn of Tulia, membership chairman. Dr. Charles M. Smallwood, dean of the university's School of Agriculture, serves with the four officers on the executive board.

Appointed to three-year terms on the board were Wayne Riggs, Clarendon, out-going president; James Spurlock, Stratford; Willis Hawkins, Hart, past vice president; Travis Jones, Floydada; Ray Hinders, Canyon; Tommy Cain, Channing; Jess Coleman, McLean; and Jackson, Gage, Tinnin and Vaughn.

Named to two-year terms were John Beasley, Perryton; Wayne Mayfield and John Sublett, both of Hereford; Rhett Plank, Canyon; Denny Fuston, Panhandle; Kenneth McCasland, Pampa; Bob Robinson, Gaines Franks and Carroll Doshier of Amarillo; and Jerry Williams, Lockney.

Directors elected for one year were Raymond Akin, Plainview; George Gandy, Wheeler; Dale Houlette, Fri-

Maxi-Garage Sale Slated Saturday

Old shoes, used sofas, paper back books, or any other item you have been defending for years from the wastebasket now has a possible home.

Eddie Knowles, president of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce calls the opportunity to divest yourself of those lovable objects the World's Biggest Garage Sale.

The women's division of the chamber, which is the sponsoring group, calls the Saturday sale a Maxi-Garage Sale.

Whatever name you hang on the occasion, it will result in the sale, swapping or just giving away of favored items.

This all will begin Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock when the doors to the old Bellah building on the corner of Fifth Avenue and Fifteenth Street open to those folks who want to display and sell their items.

And if you have objects that you can't get to the sale site, just call Knowles at 655-4525 or 655-4032 and he will have it picked up free.

The big sale begins Saturday morning at 9 o'clock and runs until 5 p.m.

Anyone can come, anyone can bring items to sell, anyone can buy. In fact, if you want to donate your goods to the Chamber of Commerce, the money will be used for the Christmas Lighting Project. If you don't want to donate your goods, the chamber only takes out 20 per cent for the lighting project and to help pay the overhead costs for the sale.

Knowles said he hoped the sale will become a regular affair that will bring people into town.

"If the sale will bring people to town, that is what we are after," he explained. "Once they get here, then they may spend money in our other stores and businesses.

"Our main objective is to get new people into Canyon."

A cashier will be at the door for change and to collect for goods which are donated. Individuals wishing to sell their own items, can turn in the tags from the sale and let the Chamber women add up the money made and deduct the 20 per cent.

All in all, the World's Biggest Sale should be fun for those browsing and profitable for those selling.

People from all over the Panhandle are expected to attend the sale, and Mrs. Jim Brown, committee chairman, urged folks to attend early to get a good selection.

What A Coach Must Do

Board Hope Cited

Canyon High School's football coach is expected to provide motivation, leadership, command respect of both the faculty and student body and win football games providing he gets the material.

This is how Dr. Dudley Moore, president of the Canyon School Board, outlined his expectations and those of the board coincidental with the appointment of Ron Mills of Panhandle as the new Eagle mentor.

Dr. Moore praised Athletic Director Dunny Goode for having built "the best athletic program in the Panhandle."

He said every applicant for the head coaching job at CHS cited the program here as one of the reasons for wanting to come to Canyon.

"Football is a motivation in the school," declared Dr. Moore. "It binds the faculty and the kids together."

The board president said that above all a head football coach is expected to get with his players and make men of them.

"That is the most important thing about the program," he declared.

Dr. Moore said football coaches would be expected to help with the community's summer program for youth.

"The football coach has to be the focal point at his time of the year," he went on.

He noted that the head football coach must be open to change and receptive to new techniques. "Football changes," the president asserted.

"Winning is important but sometimes a coach will do his best coaching and still lose," Dr. Moore said. "A coach doesn't get the material every year.

Dr. Moore declared that there is a definite need for an athletic director for the Canyon School System.

"I think Dunny has a great job to do for the School System and I think he can do it," Dr. Moore declared.

Duties of the Canyon School System Athletic Director as outlined by the school administration are as follows:

1. The Athletic Director shall be under the supervision and directly responsible to the Superintendent and the High School and Junior High School Principals.

2. All athletic coaches shall be under the supervision and directly responsible to the Athletic Director and the principals of the school they serve.

3. The Athletic Director shall coordinate the entire athletic program for junior and senior high school.

4. He shall be responsible for scheduling all athletic events, securing officials, purchasing athletic equipment and supplies, approving work-out schedules, making bus requests for out-of-town trips, and other necessary arrangements for athletic contests.

5. He shall recommend to the Superintendent and Principals concerning the employment or dismissal of coaches and the assignment or re-assignment of coaches.

6. He shall prepare an athletic budget for each sport.

7. He shall be responsible for an accurate inventory of all equipment and supplies. An inventory shall be made for each sport at the close

COVERING FUMBLES

by Bess Wilds Jones

Stupid attacks on education makes it necessary for intelligent informed people to keep quiet or even to defend that which they themselves do not wholly approve.

As Head Grid Coach

Ron Mills Is Hired

Canyon High School has a new football coach.

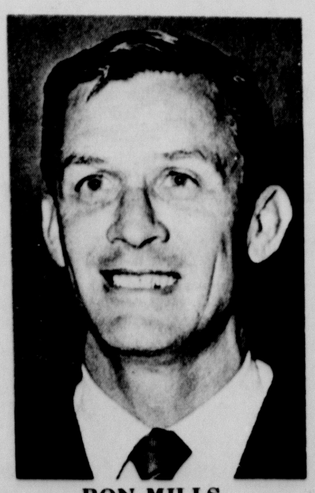
He is Ron Mills, who has coached at Panhandle the past five years.

Mills was a starting halfback for the West Texas State Buffaloes under Coach Frank Kimbrough in the middle 1950s. A native of White Deer, he came to West Texas State in 1954 and his final two years in school was starting halfback on the Buffalo team.

He was named most valuable player in the Tangerine Bowl his senior year, captain of his team and was seventh round draft choice of the Forty-Niner pro football team.

He forsook pro ball for a coaching job at Dimmitt Junior High School and was there for the 58-59 school term. He moved to Stratford High School as assistant football coach and head basketball coach from 1959 through the spring semester of 1962.

The fall of 1962 found him at his native White Deer as assistant football coach and girls basktball coach.



RON MILLS

Mills' first head coaching job came in the fall of 1964 when he became head coach at Groom. He won the regional football championship that year going as high as a team in Groom's classification could go.

In 1965 he moved to Panhandle as head coach and since then has compiled a record of 33 wins, 17 losses and a tie. His track teams have been outstanding.

Mills holds a degree in physical education with minors in industrial arts and drivers training.

Decision to hire Mills came at a school board meeting Saturday. He was hired at a salary of $12,000 a year.

Coach Mills says he favors a pro type offense and likes to see a team throw the ball a lot.

He will begin driving to

FROM THE CANYON RIM

by Troy Martin

Friday there was a discussion in the West Texas State University Activities Center on the involvement of the Christian in politics.

We are strongly in favor of the Christian being involved in politics. We are just as strongly against the church as an organization being involved in politics.

Much of organized religion has long since deserted the ranks of ministering to the sick and needy, the widows and orphans.

Having pushed this basic responsibility — commanded by the gospel — onto government, do churchmen in the depths of their subconscious somehow believe they can now fulfill their Christian roles and absolve themselves of guilt by sending lobbyists to Austin and Washington?

This country is populated by descendants of those who fled other countries where organized church was embroiled in politics and in so being lost its place as a spiritual sanctuary and became instead an oppressor.

If the church is to have a role in politics let it be through the individual whom it has taught integrity and compassion.

Ron Mills, another West Texas State University boy, is coming home to Canyon and will coach the Canyon Eagles next year.

I hope Ron can have the undivided support of the community. He is going to need it. The Eagles play a tough schedule again next fall.

We can have a great team and still go into conference play with only two wins under our belt. I hope we do better but you better believe that Caprock, Lubbock and Pampa will all be tough.

Dutch Meyer had the answer for Monday morning quarterbacks. He used to be accosted by droves of these pests and he finally began carrying a notebook in his coat pocket.

When he was approached by someone with a "new play" he would hand his tormentor the notebook and a pencil asking him to diagram the play.

Usually the "football expert" would blush and walk away.

Probably the greatest value of an athletic team, football or basketball, is the demands it makes upon the participants and the fact that it serves as a rallying point for the entire school.

Dr. Dudley Moore, president of the school board, says kids have to yell for something, be loyal to something and so why not make the school the rallying point?

He says football is a focal point. I agree that it is. Winning is also important but I think we may put too much emphasis on the win-loss record of a coach.

We need to produce winners in other fields as well as in the field of athletics. Discipline plays an important role in winning all the games of life.

Discipline can be taught in the classroom as well as on the gridiron. Discipline also must be taught at home.

It's important for a coach or teacher to be liked but a students or player's attitude toward those who supervise him at school is just as often a reflection on what he hears at home as it is on the teacher or coach involved.

Teaching or coaching cannot be a personality contest. If a parent does not back up the supervisor or teacher of his child in school then the parent has no right to be disappointed if his child turns out to be a little less than he had desired.

And the win-loss record of a football coach is no more important than a teacher's ability to project to his class.

I can't keep from feeling that if we rated and paid teachers on how well their students absorb course material college professors might have less trouble with those students when they get to higher education.

If an English teacher who could produce a state champion essay writer two years in a row received the same adulation and pay as a football coach who put state champs back to back we might be turning out college freshmen who could spell.

I say this with all candor for these paragraphs were written by a sports fan who limps for a week when his favorite quarterback sprains an ankle.

Well, the world now has one less eligible bachelor. Canadian Prime Minister Pierre Trudeau went and got himself spliced and it came as a surprise even to the news media.

The prime minister is 51 years old. His bride is 22. His mother-in-law is only 49!

Our World

BY ANN BROWN

California reports at least one new prison facility built in 1966 has never been occupied, and other prisons about half empty. The reason given for this situation in crime-ridden California is that it is cheaper to maintain convicted felons on probation than in prison.

Cheaper for whom?

Cheaper for the victims of ex-convict Manson's "family"?

Cheaper for the judge whose head was blown off by fleeing felons, and the assistant district attorney who was crippled for life?

Cheaper for the three deputies who were reportedly "executed" by ex-convicts in Dallas?

Is it cheaper for the hourly victims of the muggers who steal, rob, and kill to support their drug addictions?

The California State Bureau of Criminal Statistics revealed that in 1969, the arrests numbered into the thousands while the specific criminals arrested numbered in the hundreds. Many were re-arrested as many as three times during the year.

The Bureau's figures disclosed that in cities of 400,000 population or more, San Francisco showed the lowest number of convicted felons sent to prison — only 2.8%; 54.8% were released.

So it is cheaper to release them? Cheaper for whom? The policemen who must risk their lives to arrest them again? Cheaper for the victims of felonious assaults? Cheaper for the taxpayers who must spend billions for trials and lawyers to defend the criminals who prey upon them?

About one million inmates are confined in penal institutions in our country. The majority of them will eventually be returned to society regardless of the seriousness of their crimes. And at least 75% of them will return to their former pursuits of stealing, robbery, rape, arson, assault and murder.

Recently, sentences from 1000 to 1800 years have been imposed by juries. Such verdicts represent nothing more than empty protests. The vilest criminal is eligible to parole after 20 years, regardless of the length of his sentence.

It costs a minimum of $4,000 a year to maintain a prisoner. This does not include the original cost of the prisons nor the cost of maintaining the prisoners' families on welfare.

Statistics on the 75% of the criminals who return to lives of crime indicate that they merely sharpen their skills while in prison. Successive convictions are usually on a graduating scale.

The probationary program is reportedly justified on the grounds that prison rehabilitation has failed. But why have our expensive rehabilitation programs failed?

According to the consensus of several ex-convicts, the prisons are not ruled by the wardens, but by the incorrigible criminals who reside there. Their influence nullifies practically every constructive program.

The Preamble of our Constitution states that our laws were drafted to "establish Justice, insure domestic Tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general welfare, and secure the Blessings of Liberty, to ourselves and our Posterity..."

Does it promote the general welfare to unleash murderous felons upon society? Doesn't freeing a murderer usually condemn innocent people to death?

Currently there are more than 500 convicted murderers idling on death row. Even the bleeding hearts who would spare these felons at all costs must admit that an executed criminal never murders again, nor does he contaminate prisoners.

Recently a liberal citizen designated capital punishment as "murder a-la-civilization." But the Judge of all the earth said murderers should die (Gen. 9:6). Does He not know best?

In what way is society served by keeping incorrigible criminals alive?

If money is the issue, would it not be cheaper not to apprehend them at all?

Any nation that lacks the wisdom and the courage to enforce its laws cannot survive as a democracy.

Mrs. Ewing Rites Held In Phillips Church

Funeral services for Mrs. Oma Mae Ewing, 63, will be conducted at 4 p.m. today at the First Baptist Church in Phillips with the Rev. J.W. Reynolds, pastor of the Missionary Baptist Church of Clarendon, officiating.

They lived in Phillips at 112 Second Street and she had been a resident of Phillips for 28 years. She was a member of the Missionary Baptist Church in Clarendon, Borger Classroom Teachers Association and Texas State Teachers Association.

She is survived by her husband of the home; two daughters, Mrs. Jim Smallwood of Austin, and Mrs. Don Seals of Dallas; four sisters, Mrs. C.C. LaGrone, Mrs. D.T. Smallwood, Mrs. Bessie Lane, all of Clarendon, and Mrs. Horace Dunlap of Commanche.

Competing against 17 other schools, the Canyon team placed fifth in the meet. Members of the team were Jerry Hill, Charlie Stocker and Vince Wirt.

They competed in electricity, welding, plumbing, and identifying tools used in these areas.

Wheat Referendum and Producer Board Election

Being certified by the Commissioner of Agriculture of the State of Texas for this purpose, the Texas Wheat Producers Assn, Suite 600, Bank of the Southwest Bldg., Amarillo, Texas 79109, proposes a referendum election on May 11, 1971 under provision of Article 55c, Vernon's Civil Statutes, on the proposition of whether or not wheat producers in a 34-county area of the State of Texas shall assess themselves a maximum amount of five mills per bushel to be collected at the point of first processing, handling or sale and to elect members for a 9-man Wheat Producers Board to administer proceeds of such assessment to be used for research, disease and insect control, education and promotion designed to encourage the production, marketing, and use of wheat. Counties to be included in the referendum area are: Roberts, Dallam, Gray, Hansford, Hartley, Hutchinson, Lipscomb, Moore, Ochiltree, Sherman, Briscoe, Armstrong, Carson, Castro, Deaf Smith, Floyd, Hale, Oldham, Parmer, Potter, Randall, Swisher, Archer, Baylor, Childress, Clay, Foard, Hardeman, Haskell, Knox, Throckmorton, Wichita, Wilbarger, and Young.

The referendum and election will be held in each county by personal balloting. Polls will be open from 8:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m. on the date of the election. The polling places for all counties will be at the County Courthouse. Voting will be conducted on May 11, 1971.

Any person within the area described above engaged in the business of producing, or causing to be produced, wheat for commercial purposes is eligible to vote, including owners of farms and their tenants and sharecroppers, if such person would be required to pay the assessment proposed.

Any person qualified to vote at the referendum may place his name in nomination for election to the proposed commodity producers board by written application to the above organization signed by himself and at least ten other persons eligible to vote in the referendum. Such applications must be filed at least 30 days prior to the election date.

Any person who wishes to vote absentee may obtain a ballot at his local County Agent's office on or before April 27, 1971. Such ballots must be completed and returned to the Texas Wheat Producers Association at the above listed address prior to midnight on the election date.

On Easter Monday, April 12, the CCD of St. Mary's Catholic Church will sponsor an art show and Easter egg hunt for the children enrolled in the religion classes. "Celebrate the Risen Christ" will be the theme of the afternoon's display, which will begin at 4:45 o'clock. Each class or individual in the class is preparing a work to illustrate the theme. Among the prizes that will be given will be ceramic work done by the pastor, Rev. Matthew F. Schafle. Judging will be done by three members of the parish.

Coordinating the activities is Mrs. Marion Hicks, vice-president of the parish council.

Mrs. Bernard Hartman and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Stocker will arrange the hunt. Refreshments will be served by Mrs. Alois Friemel and Mrs. Robert Koch.

Saturday night, March 27, the Umbarger CYO Volleyball teams will host a rematch with Bushland in the school gym. The seventh and eighth grade games will begin at 7:30 p.m. Later, the high-school girls will match their mothers while the high school boys will play an intramural game. Walter Cranmer, coach of the four teams, asks that participants be at the gym at 7:15. Referee for the games will be Bernard Hartman.

The high school CYO will sponsor a skating party Sunday night at the Jubilee Skating arena in Amarillo. Members may ask one guest; they will meet at the church hall at 6:30 p.m. and will skate from 7:30 until 9:30 p.m. Deborah Ramaekers and Dwight Brandt are in charge of the evening's entertainment.

Spec. 4 Dwayne Gerber surprised his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gerber, when he arrived home last Friday for a 2-week leave from the Army. He is stationed in Phouc Vinh, Viet Nam. He will return to duty on March 29.

Joe Wieck, director of the Mid-Plains Rural Telephone Cooperative, is planning entertainment for the annual meeting next Friday, April 2 in the Tulia High School Auditorium.

The Jolly Six, a musical group who have played together for many years, will entertain during the intermissions. Raymond Batenhorst and five members of the Grabber family — Mrs. Frank Grabber; her children, John, Ed, Bernard, and Lillian Friemel make up the group. Also during the evening, one square from the Pistols 'n Petticoats Club will dance.

Wieck and Richard E. Friemel have been nominated for directors from the Umbarger exchange. One of the men will be elected that night.

WT Students To Speak At Youth Seminar

Two West Texas State University students will participate in the PEP (Panhandle Economic Program) on Family Living-Youth Seminar Tuesday, April 6.

Steve Dauer, WT freshman who is state vice president of FFA, will moderate the session entitled, "Youth Think." Ronnie Burks, WT sophomore and former 4-H'er, will also be included on the panel. The session is scheduled from 2:30 p.m. to 3:15 p.m.

Registration for the all day meeting will begin at 9 a.m. at the Quality Motel on I-40 in Amarillo. The announcement came from Becky Hall, Randall County home demonstration agent.

Theme for the event is "Guidelines for Guiding Young People" and sessions are open to the public.

Keynote speaker on the program will be Dr. Bernice Moore of Austin with the Hogg Foundation, University of Texas. She will discuss "Communications Within the Family."

Also featured at the morning session will be Leo Forrest of Amarillo, PEP chairman, and Ronnie Parker of Dimmitt, minister of the Church of Christ. Forrest will describe "How Family Living Relates to PEP" while Parker will give a report on "The White House Conference on Children and Youth."

Edd McLeroy of Dimmitt, chairman of the Family Living-Youth Task Force, will preside at the morning program and will deliver the welcome.

The afternoon session will feature two panel discussions, one on "Awareness of Opportunities for Youth" and the other, "Youth Think."

The panel on opportunities will include Robert Holman of Hereford, superintendent in charge of curriculum; Bruce E. Romig of Amarillo, Texas State Technical Institute; and Don Hileman, manager of the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce. Holman will discuss "Opportunities Through Counseling," Romig will speak on "Training for Youth," and Hileman will talk about "Financing the Training."

The panel on "Youth Think" will allow a number of area youth to express their own opinions and give their ideas relating to the program theme. Other participants in addition to Dauer and Burks of WTSU, are Debi Goodin and Cindy Youngblood, members of the District 1 4-H Council; Kipp Burnett, area FFA president; and Pat Palmer, Wheeler County home demonstration agent, panel advisor.

Summary remarks will be made by Dr. Moore and Mrs. Argen Draper, Deaf Smith county home demonstration agent.

Some 300 people, including school counselors, parents, and representatives of the various churches, are expected to attend.

A fee of $3.25 per person will be charged for luncheon and incidental expenses.

Fishing Dream To Open In Canadian Wilderness

BY NELL WILLIAMS

The "dream of all our lives that's finally come true" will be open to sportsmen this summer under the management of Jack Teer and Dean House of Canyon.

Billy Boy Lodge on Canada's Kakinagimak was purchased by the pair in October.

The two Canyon men got into the fishing lodge business "by accident." "We'd both rather fish and hunt than eat," said Teer. "Our interest goes back 30 and 34 years," he added with a grin, making no secret of their ages.

Teer and his wife, Susie, and their 90-pound Weimaraner, Thurmond, plan to go up to the fishing camp the first week in April to prepare for their opening on June 1. The "no vacancy" sign is already up for the first two weeks of the summer.

The lodge is on the line between Manitoba and Saskatchewan, 565 miles northwest of Winnipeg. Teer and House says that theirs is the only camp on a lake which abounds in northern pike, walleye, and lake trout. The lake is in a forest of spruce and birch.

Formerly a corporate retreat, the lodge was "completely primitive" when they took it over and is now "90 per cent modern" with running water, electricity, and chemical toilets.

Transportation is "something of a problem," and anything shipped in has to come over ice or through the bush unless it is flown in by bush planes, the pair said, adding that they are 40 miles fom the end of the last road in that part of the world.

Teer and House describe the place as "not designed for women," though the accommodations include room for two couples. The three guest cabins will hold a total of 18.

Guests at the lodge will be provided with food, guides and sleeping room. They can arrange to be flown in from Flin Flon, Manitoba, by bush plane.

Teer expects to keep the lodge open until Sept. 15 or, if he has requests for it, till the end of the moose hunting season about three weeks later.

House, executive vice-president at West Texas State Bank, will not spend the season in Canada, though he expects to be there frequently. Teer is a former associate registrar at West Texas State University.

Eagle Diamond Team Drops Two Contests

Canyon's Eagles lost two ball games the first two days of this week but played one 11-inning thriller.

The Eagles lost to the Borger Bulldogs 3-1 in the eleventh.

Canyon led 1-0 going into the seventh inning but the Bulldogs scored and tied it up and then scored 2 runs in the eleventh to win the game.

Mickey Comer went the distance for Canyon. He struck out 15 batters, walked two and gave up 7 hits. The Eagles garnered five hits and got two walks. The Eagles committed no errors.

Canyon's single run came when Gary Gerber doubled and then was driven home by a Stu Downing single.

The Eagles didn't fare so well against the Tascosa Rebels losing that Tuesday afternoon contest 15 to 3. Downing was on the mound giving up 9 hits. The Eagles committed 11 errors.

Canyon got 6 hits off the Rebel pitcher. Tascosa committed one error.

Tascosa jumped to an early lead scoring 3 in the first, 4 in the third, 5 in the sixth and 2 in the seventh.

All three Eagle scores came in the fifth. David Carter got in on a fielder's choice. Randy Read singled and then Randall Hicks singled scoring Carter.

A Darrell Curtis single sent Read to third. Then Gary Gerber singled home Read and scored himself on a Downing single.

"We have not attained the plateau of consistency I would like," commented Coach Joe Allen. "One day we are hot and the next day cold."

The Eagles play Hereford early next week. Time and place will be announced in The Sunday News.

The items were offered at a meeting of the Society of Vertebrate Paleontology in November of 1969 and Dr. Schultz said he appeared early and "got the cream of the pick."

ed. "If you just pulled out the old spike and put a new one in it wouldn't stay."

The new rail in 1,440-foot lengths is transported on a rail train. It bends with curves in the track like huge lengths of steel spaghetti.

It is unloaded by a threader car and laid along the shoulder of the track.

"When we lay it a lead burro crane threads it into the middle of the track," said Bailey.

Spike setting machines set spikes which are then driven by air hammers — remote descendants of the steam hammer that was the death of John Henry.

Rail anchors are put in place, two on each side of the rail at every other tie, to prevent movement. Bailey said that without these the rail would simply scoot along with the train until it would finally knot and result in disaster.

A quality crew makes a final check.

The rail lengths are welded together to preclude the need for joints and accompanying maintenance problems, Bailey explained.

He said there is continuous welded rail with joints only at switches, crossings and for signal systems.

"Anywhere we can we have continuous rail," said Bailey. "It saves maintenance of joints and cuts down on the danger of derailment."

Finally all the old material is picked up by salvage crews and the right-of-way is left clean.

Some of the rail is salvaged and welded into 1,440-foot lengths. Bailey said the Santa Fe salvages 700 pounds of steel for every 1,000 pounds it buys.

He said the Santa Fe had 3,700 miles of welded rail in the 13,000-mile system at the end of 1970 and is installing 286 additional miles this year.

Here the latter part of the week observing the Santa Fe operations was S. T. Su from Taiwan. Su is assistant chief engineer of the civil engineering department with the Taiwan National Railroad.

Asquith Presents Paper

Dr. George B. Asquith, assistant professor of geology at WTSU, will present a paper on recognition of channel sandstones to the South Central Section of the Geological Society of America in Lubbock, Friday.

The channel sandstones are stratographic traps for oil in some areas, especially the Gulf Coast and parts of Oklahoma, Dr. Asquith said.

The recognition method which he will discuss consists of taking pellets from the subsurface for sample study. The pellets can be used to determine the formation of the sands, the geologist explained.

The paper's title is "Recognition of Channel Sandstones by Textural Parameters and SP Curve Shape."

MRS. BRUMMETT

Mrs. Margaret Brummet has received a $300 scholarship from the Golden Spread chapter of the Data Processing Management Association.

Data Bank Eyed

A committee of faculty members from the WTSU School of Business is looking into the possibilities of creating a data bank at the university for the use of researchers in the Panhandle area.

Dr. Phillip J. Gensler, the chairman, says that if funds become available for the purchasing of data and the hiring of personnel, a statistics library could be made available to such users as the Texas Highway Department, planning and zoning commissions, welfare departments, and market estimaters. The information would be stored on computer tapes and sold to users in printed form.

The chairman envisions starting with information for the 1970 United States Census, the Bureau of Labor Statistics, and state agencies. Some data might be collected on a local basis, he thinks on such subjects as the economic impact of the current boom in cattle feeding in this area.

Postal Patrons May Avoid Smut

You don't have to wait till smut mail arrives at your house to protest about it, according to Canyon postmaster Leroy Moreland.

Even if you have never received mail which deals with obscenity or pornography, there is a form available at the post office which will let you put your name on a list of addresses to whom smut dealers are forbidden to mail their material.

A master list which the government makes up is available to publishers of pornographic material at a cost of $5,000. The listing is for five years and may be renewed.

After a thirty-day waiting period, while his name is being processed, if a postal patron receives smut mail, he may file a complaint. The Attorney General will take criminal action only if the violation seems to have been willful. Mistaken mailings are handled by civil action.

Moreland said that the flow of smut mail seems to be about the same as it has been for the past three or four years, which is as far as his records are kept.

He warned that all the adults in a family must file separate requests for inclusion on the master list. Children under 19 may be listed on the form of a parent, however.

The law which provides for the listing also requires publishers of pornographic material to print on the outside wrapper a legend reading "Sexually Oriented Ad."

Moreland said that since the forms became available Feb. 1, he has felt that the number of requests for them do not reflect the amount of objectionable mail being received in Canyon.

Since Congress passed the law, Moreland said complaints about eight or ten pieces of mail have been turned in to him.

Moreland feels that the new law gives the public a better means of trying to curb pornographic mailing than the first such act, which went into effect in 1968. "This one will be more widespread," he said.

The postmaster said that if organizations would like to fill out copies of the form at their meetings, he would provide the forms in bulk to be passed out to the groups.

Gene Howe News

BY PAULINE HEFLEY

The District 8 Spring Conference of the PTA was held last Thursday at the First Christian Church in Wolflin Village in Amarillo. Those attending from Gene Howe were: Luther B. Lawless, Troyce Mulherin, Ernestine Harp, Melvina Brown, Von-Dean McGregor, Glynna Schmidt, Marylon Baker, Raydelle Palmer, Willetta Johnson, Bobbie Davlin and myself.

After the Conference ended, Raydelle Palmer and Willetta Johnson were motoring by the Bank of the Southwest in Wolflin Village when Raydelle spotted a Stetson hat flying through the air.

She promptly stopped the car and retrieved the hat. That evening she called the residence of the person who owned the hat (name being inside the hat, you realize) and inquired, "Are you offering any reward for the return of this hat — like maybe Vitamins?" Anyway, she returned the hat the next day and upon doing so, the wife of the hat owner most graciously offered to pay Raydelle for her troubles, which was graciously declined by Raydelle. Be that as it may — the next day some beautiful red geraniums were delivered to the Palmer home via the florist and the card read — "Thanks for chasing down my hat, Dr. Merrill Winsett." Isn't it refreshing to know there are honest people in the world and that the physician was appreciative of Mrs. Palmer's extra efforts of honesty and reciprocated with an extra effort of thoughtfulness?

The sixth grade boys basketball team at Gene Howe recently had a hot dog supper given by Glynna Schmidt and Gwyn Sellers at the Ed Sellers' home on Sunburst. The boys presented their coach, Bruce Winn, an appreciation trophy.

About 15 ladies attended a coffee at the home of Frances Cannon on Farmers for Wanda Beck on Friday last. The Becks will be moving to Lubbock and they'll be missed in our area.

Donald Wayne Pace and Tommy Cook at the High Plains campus on Chapman Road went to Sweetwater with the FFA judging team last Saturday.

"Welcome Home" to Andy Hanson who is here for a week from the Air Force Academy. Andy is the son of the Frank Hensons on Euclid. Welcome Home to Doris Bufkin!

Jodi and Alexis Hefley, daughters of the Dub Hefleys on Chapman Road were priviledged to play the harp at the Amarillo Junior College for Mrs. Catherine Gotthofer this last Saturday. Mrs. Gotthofer is the harpist with Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Studios and a member of the California Institute of Arts faculty. Eight students participated and Mrs. Gotthofer gave an evaluation on each one. All of the students in this area are taught by the capable Mrs. Madeline Henshaw, who also plays the harp in the Amarillo Symphony. Well, Jodi and Alexis "done good" and "ain't it nice to have a little class in the area?"

Understand the Cancer Society needs white sheets that will be made into bandages. Now — let's you go take a look-see in your linen closet and I'll bet we all have a couple of old white sheets we simply never use. Just take them to the nurse's office at Gene Howe and Mrs. L.R. "Pete" Baker will pick them up and deliver them to the Cancer Society office.

The Central Church of Christ in Amarillo recently launched a campaign to raise $75,000 for the construction of a second cottage on the campus of High Plains Children's Home on Chapman Road. The nine bedroom home will take care of 12 homeless children on any given occasion and it is anticipated that during a twelve month period at least 20 children will be served. The present cottage has fourteen children and the houseparents are Roy and Jo Ann Forehand. If you have the doldrums some day and feel really down in the mouth — you ought to just motor by and visit the Forehands — Man — that's where it all takes place!!! Understand that Roy has been tip-toeing through the tulips and if one is not careful, one might think he were Tiny Tim after a recent tackey party.

Call and give me the latest concerning you and yours — 376-9853 or 352-2089 or take it to Gene Howe and deposit in the box. Must sign off for now. My friend told me I talked so much I ought to donate my tongue to science. pmh.

Amarillo Men Seek Turf

Virgil Henson, vice president of financial affairs at West Texas State University, told a group of Amarillo businessmen Tuesday that the university would not underwrite a fund drive for artificial surfacing of Buffalo Bowl.

Henson said the university could not combine season ticket sales and the fund drive in an underwriting project. He did say he was for the artificial surfacing, as he was for more scholarships for athletics and other programs.

The group selected a committee to investigate the possibility of hiring a public relations man to direct the fund raising campaign.

They also decided to begin the fund raising this year and to set a deadline for 1972 on the $250,000 project.

Members of the University of California at Los Angeles Varsity Basketball Band were served lunch by members of Kappa Kappa Psi, band fraternity, and Tau Beta Sigma, band sorority at WT Tuesday. The UCLA band, lead by Kelly James, stopped in Canyon on their way to play in the Astrodome as UCLA meets Kansas in the NCAA basketball play-offs. The group will perform in Salt Lake City, Denver, Amarillo, Dallas and Houston before returning to California. Here, Kay Porter hands Roger Maddaford a drink.

Open Pump Gives Drivers Instant Credit

An unlocked gas pump gave four WTSU students a chance to "drive now and pay later" and convinced a service station operator of their honesty.

The operator and his wife run a small station on the Expressway.

Recently, the wife had visits at the station from four separate drivers, all college students, who told her that the pump had been left unlocked the night before, that they had helped themselves to gasoline and had come by to pay her for it.

The woman told Dean of Men Weldon Trice that the pump and the payments "checked right out to the penny."
